

Finish: Give Yourself the Gift of Done in 2021 Virtual Event

Tuesday, January 26th
7:00 p.m. – 8:00p.m.

Join me and our local Thrivent Member Network to attend Finish: Give Yourself the Gift of Done in 2021. This exclusive virtual event features New York Times Bestselling author, Jon Acuff. I'm looking forward to it and I'd love for you to be there!

As we head into 2021, have you asked yourself, "What do I want to accomplish this year?"

In every element of your life, goals matter. Yet for many of us, resolutions never get finished. What if you could do simple things to improve how often you finish what you start?

Bestselling author and self-identified "goal-nerd", Jon Acuff, will share what he learned from his study commissioned with a PhD professor and research team analyzing what it takes to turn a chronic starter into a consistent finisher.

Sincerely,
Benjamin Rust
